

Kentucky Hospital Association Annual Quality Conference

QUALITY BOOT CAMP:

*Getting in Shape for 2014
and Beyond!*

March 18, 2014 • Crowne Plaza Louisville Airport • Louisville, Kentucky

About the Conference

Since 2006, KHA has hosted an Annual Quality Conference for hospital patient safety and quality leaders to hear the latest information on quality and patient safety policy, trends and best practices. Each year, KHA's commitment to improving the patient safety and quality of Kentucky hospitals increases, just as the demands and expectations for improved quality increase from the public and regulatory agencies. KHA works to support the missions of our hospitals by providing resources and support to enhance the quality improvement work in which our hospitals are already engaged. KHA accomplishes this through regional, state and national quality improvement collaborations supporting best practices, data benchmarking and technical assistance.

The 2014 Annual Quality Conference is a great opportunity to get the best of the K-HEN resources on a broad range of topics relevant to today's health care environment. This conference is a great opportunity for hospital leaders to enhance their skills and broaden their knowledge base.

Target Audience

This conference is open to representatives from every Kentucky hospital. KHA encourages nurse leaders, quality directors, infection prevention and other front line staff and directors involved in patient safety and quality improvement to attend.
